Dear Mr. Mitchell:

Thank you for your letter of 6 April in which you indicate that the proposals contained in my letter of 3 March relative to reports in connection with the Federal Employees' Loyalty Program are satisfactory.

I wish to express my real appreciation for your understanding of our security problem and the courtesy of yourself and your representatives with whom we have dealt in assisting us to find a workable solution to this problem.

Any further coordination necessary in connection with details will be handled by appropriate members of my staff directly with representatives of your Investigations Division.

Sincerely,
